

Grieve Not For Me

I cannot let you grieve for me,
For those who love must let us go.
In comfort, please believe I'm free,
From all the pain life can bestow,
As I begin my world anew,
Consider not what used to be,
I'm sending happy smiles to you while
I enjoy eternity.
Lord, bless the home
From which I came,
Yet brush each lonely hour away,
With fond remembrance of my name,
And a sunshine for a newer day.
Look to the wind to find me there,
Beside the hardest thing you do.
I've left my love within this prayer
I'm always watching over you.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun sets for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone,
It's all part of the Master's Plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go
