The Life & Legacy of

Ms. Clara Hancock was born on July 24, 1947 to the late Johnnie Mae Hancock in Coffee County. She attended school in the Coffee Co. School System. Clara had limitations compared to the average person on what she was able to accomplish, but she took pride in doing everything better than you, whether sweeping the floor or doing dishes. She enjoyed the simple things in life as well as dressing up. She brought joy to the people she came in contact with.

On Sunday March 25, 2018 God called Clara, and she departed this life. She was preceded in death by her parents; Lester and Johnnie Mae Manley. One son; Terry Hancock. Two brothers; Carl and Phillip Manly, and one sister, Joyce Manley.

She leaves to cherish her memories her siblings: Jerry (Rosa), Jimmy (Doris), Lamar (Jeanetta), Greg (Geneva) Willard, Lymon (Patricia), Cynthia (David), Steve (Mable) Sterling, Donna (Randy). One sister -n-law: Earline Manley. One loving aunt, Lucille McRae. A devoted nephew, John Edwin, an adopted family (The Washington's), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other friends and family that love and miss her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
