

His Journey's Just Begun

By Ellen Brenneman

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Acknowledgments

You may have sent a lovely card or sat quietly somewhere. You may have sent a floral spray or done something to show you care. You may have brought some food to us or lent your listening ear. It may have been a call you made from a distance far or near. You may have shared the kindest words or just thought of us that day. No matter what it is you've done, We want to take the time to say: All the things that you have done to help console our hearts, we thank you all so very much whatever the part.
