I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

The Life & Legacy of

Mr. Robert Clayburn Williams was born June 21, 1964 in Bellglade, Florida to the late Mr. R.C. Williams and the late Betty Gibson. He left Bellglade and moved to Nicholls, Ga in the year of 1995. He was a faithful member of Absolute Truth under the leadership of Pastor Doris Burkett and the late Wendell Burkett. He transitioned from this life on March 20, 2018.

He was preceded in death by two brothers: Rodney Williams and Eddie Williams, and three sisters: Jackie Williams, Louis Williams, and Bobbie Jean Ivory.

He leaves to mourn his passing a loving wife, Clara Williams, three daughters; Brittany Atkins, Bianca Williams, and Robnisha Williams, and one son, Kevin Merritt. Five sisters; Rosalyn Gibson, Gail Williams, Cassandra Daniels, Helen Jones, and Gwen Williams. Three brothers; Author Daniels, Albert Daniels, and Samuel Boyd. Fourteen grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and sorrowing friends. Special nephew; Charles Palmer.

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.
