

Psalms 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Life's Journey

Stanley T. Lewis was born to Thelma Lewis and Nathaniel Brown on December 30, 1965 in Los Angeles California.

He enlisted into the US Navy on September 28, 1988 where he served until he was honorably discharged.

He later became a truck driver and continued to drive over the road loads until he was no longer able to drive due to his illness.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Willie and Lillian Mills, his daughter, Shirley Ladawn, and his father, Nathaniel Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Miriam Harrison Lewis of Douglas, Ga. Five children; Michael Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., Dominique T. Lewis of Jacksonville, Fl., Leon T. Johnson of Phoenix, AR., Cameron T. Cox of Jacksonville, Fl., and Meshay D. Vickers of Atlanta, Ga. His mother, Thelma Lewis of Enoree, SC. His brothers; Rev. Dr. Courtney (Pamela) Mills, Melvin Mills both of Enoree, SC. Four aunts; Stella Downs, Ruth Mills both of Enoree, SC., Dorothy Irby of Lauren, SC., Jeanett Reives (Jack) of New Jersey, and Ruth (Abraham) Andrews. Brothers-in-law; Ricky Harrison of Florida, Tyrus (Darlene) Harrison of Douglas, Ga., and Larry Harrison of Atlanta, Ga. A special cousin, Barron Andrews. Four grandkids; Ma'khia, Justice, Michael Jr., and Messiah Johnson. Also, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.

When I must leave you
For a little while-
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years,

But start out bravely
With a gallant smile;
And for my sake
And for my name
Live on and do
All things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,

Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;

And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
