

I'll Be Waiting For You

Although your heart may be broken,
There's no need to weep for me.
I'm in a wonderful place now,
Where I'm happy and so carefree.
I had to go, but I've left behind
Good memories to comfort you.
Concentrate on the best times we had,
And try not to feel so blue.
For one day we'll be together again,
To laugh and sing and play.
You'll be so glad to see me again,
It will seem I was gone just one day.
So try to lift up your heads now,
And dare to set grief aside,
Because I'll be waiting here for you,
To welcome you to the other side.

Obituary

Today we celebrate the life of Terrez Lashon Ellis. He was born on December 28, 1976 at Coffee Regional Medical Center in Douglas Georgia to Celeste Ellis Williams and John Davis.

He grew up on Sugar Hill, Douglas Georgia. He attended Coffee High School and graduated with his GED. He made many friends as he traveled along this life's journey and was employed as a warehouse worker. He was a member of New Hope Covenant Christian Fellowship Church, Broxton, GA.

On Saturday, June 9, 2018 he transitioned from this life.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother Betty Brown, his uncles Jesse Carmichael, Alvin Brown.

Terrez Ellis leaves to cherish his memory: His loving mother Celeste Williams and stepfather who was diligent in helping to raise him, Earnest "Pete" Williams; his loving father John (Gloria) Davis. Two loving paternal grandparents: Edward and Pauline Davis. Three brothers: John E. Junior (Tonya) Davis, Tyrone (Mesha) Davis, Hosea Brockington and Early McCray; Five sisters: Sabrina (Deck) Lott, Lajohndra Green, Donna (Marcus) Simpson, Wendy (Michael) Hamilton and Crystal Thomas. Loving paternal uncles: Elmer Davis, Anthony Davis; loving maternal uncle Eric Ellis; loving paternal aunts: Earline Lane, Willa Dean Williams, Vicki McElhaney, Helen Harris and maternal aunts Sharon Brown and Valerie Brown. A special cousin Ed Lott. Two special friends that stuck close like brothers: Kevin Williams and Lee Allen. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
