

I'LL BE WAITING FOR YOU

Although your heart may be broken,
There's no need to weep for me.
I'm in a wonderful place now,
Where I'm happy and so carefree.

I had to go, but I've left behind
Good memories to comfort you.
Concentrate on the best times we had,
And try not to feel so blue.

For one day we'll be together again,
To laugh and sing and play.
You'll be so glad to see me again,
It will seem I was gone just one day.

So try to lift up your heads now,
And dare to set grief aside,
Because I'll be waiting here for you,
To welcome you to the other side.

Obituary

John Henry Daniel, Jr. was born on December 13, 1927 in Stewart County Lumpkin, Georgia. He was one of 18 siblings born to the late John Henry Daniel, Sr., and Agnes Taylor Daniel. He spent his boyhood growing up in Steward County farming with his family, and hunting. As he matured, he began working with the railroad. A short time later, he moved to Pearson, GA., and began working in the pulp wood industry. He even went into business for himself hauling pulp wood and fence posts. Upon retiring, he found out that not having something to keep him busy was not for him so, he started working for the city's maintenance department. Later, he became employed with Cady Bag Company.

John Henry lived to be 90 years old. He departed this life on June 6, 2018. He is preceded in death by his father and mother: John Henry, Sr., and Agnes Daniel; a daughter: Margaret Hill; and nine other brothers and sisters: Mattie Bell Dalton, Elizabeth Piortt, Margaret Truman Powell, Gus Daniel, Sr., George Washington Daniel, Sr., Minnie Thomas, David Daniel, Joseph Daniel, and Thomas Jefferson Daniel.

Those left to cherish his memory includes four sons: Samuel Lee Daniel, Larry (Lavon) Daniel, John Henry Daniel, III, and Joseph (Linda) Daniel; three daughters: Dianne (Deland) Bailey, Janice Coffee, and Gwen (Marvin) Brockington.

Also left to cherish his memory are three sisters: Rosetta Wallace, Carrie Bell Cooley, and Julia Jackson; five brothers: Benjamin Franklin (Linda) Daniel, Roosevelt Daniel, Moses (Mary) Daniel, Jacob (Dorothy Jean), Daniel, and Graham Daniel.

Also surviving to cherish his memory are twenty-one grandchildren; thirty-six great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; and an army of loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.
