

My King, You often said that we must have been together in a past life, because so many of our experiences seemed like they have happened before. We knew God had ordained our love for each other because we were meant to be. We became "One" in the truest sense. Your thought became my thoughts, your feelings became my feelings, and your pain became my pain. Now, I am hurting more than ever but I thank you for being my best friend and for loving me. You have been my inspiration, my rock, my bone, the perfect husband and extraordinary father our children. You dedicated yourself to us without asking for much in return... except our love, respect, and support. We have been blessed, but there was so much more that I wanted to give you in return. I will miss so many things about you such as your warm smile, laugh, words of advice, wisdom, partnership, and your daily call.... Baby!!! How are you and the kids doing this morning? Oh, how I wish my phone would ring again... The day you left me was the worst day of my life because I did not want our special bond to end so soon. You have been there for me for so long, it is hard to imagine that you are gone. I am so lonely without you, but will carry your memory in my heart and soul forever. Thank you for a wonderful 14 years of being my friend my best friend, my husband, and a great father to our kids combined. "When I said I Do, I meant that I will for the end of our time"

Rest in Peace my King!

*Dad, Thank you so much for accepting me and my sister into your life as your own son and daughter. You have always been a special part of our lives. We could not ask for a better man to marry our mother and treat her like the queen she is. We thank you for the many years of love and happiness that you brought to her. Thank you for being a great grand father to Michael, Chase, Armani, and Kween. They will miss you just as much as we do. Our hearts are heavy and the tears continue to run down our faces, but we know you are in a better place. You are in heaven watching over all of us and protecting us. We love you deeply and sincerely. One day we will all meet again at the big family reunion in the sky. This is not goodbye, but more of see you later. We Love you Marvin Lee forever and always.
Love Always, Jeren Fullmore & Sierra Hodges*
