

A Farewell from me to you

To those I have know whether for a moment or a lifetime, this is not good bye just a farewell till we meet again.

There is no need to worry and no need to fret, because I know Jesus, my mother made sure of that.

If you knew me and loved me, I understand the tears; but rest assured that God has taken away all of my fears. I have always wanted to travel, but was afraid to fly, but when the Master Pilot showed up I could not deny him. So I said, Dear Lord if you are the pilot then I am ready to take this flight.

Farewell my love ones till we meet again.

Liz

Pallbearers

Darren Newton      Derrick Newton
Rodney Rymer      Nicholas Newton
Michael Newton      Jimmy Newton, Jr.

Flowers

Family & Friends

Repast

Oak Grove A.M.E. Church

Acknowledgment

The family of Liz wishes to thank each of you for your out pour of genuine sympathy and concerns. We gracefully acknowledge your prayers, visits, calls and other acts of kindness extended to our family. Words cannot express the gratitude we feel in our hearts. May God richly bless each and everyone of you.

Thank you

The Newton Family

Harrell's Funeral Home

400 East Cherry Street

Douglas, GA 31533

Director: Sidney Harrell

Website: HarrellsFuneralHome.com

IN LOVING MEMORY

Elizabeth Lorraine Newton

“Another limb has fallen off the tree”

Saturday , March 23, 2019

11:00 AM

Graveside Service

Oak Grove / Newton Cemetery

West Green, GA

Officiating : Elder A. Robinson

Interment: Oak Grove / Newton Cemetery

West Green, GA

Obituary

Elizabeth Lorraine Newton was born on August 6, 1966 in Broxton, GA to the late Ellis Miles Newton and Elizabeth Pace Newton . She was the 8th child of 9 children.

She joined the Church of God in Christ Church at an early age. She was educated in the Coffee County school system.

Elizabeth moved to Columbus, GA at the age of 18. She worked, attended Columbus College and received a Bachelors Degree as a Registered Respiratory Therapist. Later she returned to school at Southern Union Community College and received a degree as a Registered Nurse. Also, she returned to school again to become a Certified Sleep Lab Technician.

She loved to read so many books and magazines. She encouraged others to read as well because, reading helped you to learn new words and make learning fulfilling and enjoying.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her parents Ellis Miles Newton and Elizabeth Pace Newton and her brother Kent Anton Newton.

She is survived by four brothers and three sisters: Miles Ellis (Glenda) Newton of Douglas, GA, James Otis Newton of Douglas, GA, Eloise Carol (Larry) Jackson of Columbus, GA, King Solomon (Valerie) Newton, of Douglas, GA, Jimmy Randolph (Sandra) Newton of Columbus, GA, Lola Laverne Newton of Broxton, GA, Shelia Nadine (Rodney) Rymer of Atlanta, GA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A special dedication goes to her caregiver and sister Lola.

Also, recognizing three special young ladies that were a part of her life that brought her joy and she claimed these young ladies as her daughters:

Nicolle Brown-Smith, Carissa Analise Monae Jackson and Karen Brown.

Precious Memories

Celebration of Life

For

Elizabeth Lorraine Newton

Officiating..... Elder A. Robinson
Song..... Rexine Robinson
Prayer..... Minister Miles E. Newton
Remarks.....Two (2) Minutes
Eulogy.....Elder A. Robinson

Acknowledgements

Harrell's Funeral Home

He knew you were suffering, he knew you were in pain, he saw you getting tired so God put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. He always takes the best.
A Golden heart stop beating, hard working hands at rest.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God took you home.
She had an appointment to make, a time and date was set. Trust in the Lord as she was taught to do.

Give your heart to Jesus.

Remember: This appointment you must make too.