

We Remember Him

When we are weary and in need of strength,
When we are lost and sick at heart,
We remember him.

When we have a joy we crave to share
When we have decisions that are difficult to make

When we have achievements that are based on his
We remember him.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember him.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
We remember him.

At the rising of the sun and at its setting,
We remember him.

As long as we live, he too will live
For he is now a part of us,
As we remember him.

Obituary

David L. Love, 75, returned to his heavenly home on April 15, 2019 after a valiant battle with a long illness. His devotion to his family and his firm belief in God supported him in his struggle and ultimately gave him peace.

David was born to the late Will and Hattie Mae Love, of Douglas, GA on November 4, 1943. He graduated from Carver High School in 1963 then went on to Albany State on a basketball scholarship. He continued his lifelong dream in California pursuing a career in singing and playing Minor League Baseball while maintaining a job as a mail carrier. His passion for music lead him to sing with different groups of that time and eventually singing lead for The Gospelairs of Georgia. David was truly a jack of all trades; he went on to become a chef for numerous local restaurants and had his own baking business.

David was blessed with a large and loving family. He married his best friend Betty J. Love in Douglas, GA. David helped raise his eleven children with patience, discipline and humility. David was an educator at heart. He always had time to answer a question or solve a problem, no matter how small. He is dearly missed by his loved ones, who celebrate the fact that he is at peace with his creator.

“Those we love remain with us
for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade
because a loved one’s gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
far as long as there is memory,
they’ll live on in the heart.”

It was God’s will to call our beloved Father, David Love from labor to reward while within the quietness of his home surrounded by his loved ones. He was preceded in death by his parents; his loving wife, a son, Joe Manning; four sisters, Marilyn Love, Clara Carter (Neat) and Mammie Batts all of Douglas, GA and Dora Jenkins of Nicholls, GA. Three brothers; Clyde Love of Miami, FL.; Dan Love of Los Angeles, CA. and Eugene Love of Douglas, GA.

He is survived by a sister, Mary “Carolyn” Lane of Bradenton, FL; ten children; David (Anterius) Vickers of Douglas, GA., David Jr. (Angela) Love of Lynwood, CA., Jeanette (Craig) Mason of McRae, GA., James (Diane) Williams of Albany, GA., Brenda (Bennie) Graham of Brunswick, GA., Chester (Damita) Williams of Douglas, GA., Debra (Oliver) Hemphill of Brunswick, GA. Frank (Michelle) Williams of Warner Robbins, GA., Jesse (Patricia) Williams of Douglas, GA., and Pernell (Sharlene) Williams of Warner Robbins, GA. A host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
