OBITUARY

Marie L. Hill was born on June 13, 1937, to the Late Elzie Leggett and Ardelia Dumas. She was affectionately known as Ree by her close family and friends. She received her education from Carver High School in Douglas, Georgia.

Marie was very active in her church, New Hope Baptist Church in West Green, Georgia. Marie passionately fulfilled her duties as the church secretary for over 50 years, as she sat under several pastors. She was baptized early in life and received her salvation in Christ.

She leaves behind a legacy of faith in Christ, love for family, generosity, peace, grace, and strength.

On the morning of June 12, 2019, a day before her 82nd birthday, she was called home. She was preceded in death by both of her parents Elzie Leggett and Ardelia Dumas. One brother SGT. Arsie J. McDuffie and her beloved sister Willie Ruth (Polly) Leggett.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving daughter, Dawn Hill of Douglas, GA. A granddaughter, Kayla Hill of Atlanta, GA. a devoted goddaughter Brandi Bennett of Douglas, GA and godson Darius (Bria) Wiley of Hope Mills, N.C. One loving sister, Dora Bennett of Broxton, GA. Two nephews, Arsie (Annie) Bennett of Hinesville, GA and Victor Bennett of Broxton, GA. Seven nieces, Lynette (John) Kavanagh of Laurel, Maryland, Melissa Bennett and Tracey Bennett of Broxton, GA, Yvette(Clifford) Bernard, Vicki Bennett (Ty Shawn) and Crystal Bennett all from Fitzgerald, GA, Tonya (Jermaine) Bivens of Fort Polk, LA. A host of great nephews and nieces, family and friends.
