Obituary

Mother Ola Mae Young Watts was born on March 31, 1914, in Irwinville, Georgia to the Late Lonnie Young and the Late Viola Kendrick Young. She grew up in Dooley County, Vienna, Georgia. Mother Watts married the Late Willie Lee Watts. Afterward, she and her husband moved to Coffee County. To the union, six children were born. She was a faithful mother of Young's Chapel Baptist Church, under the leadership of Dr. Booker T. Rose (Lady Gloria Rose) for many years.

Being a great loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, and woman of God. She enjoyed her family, friends, the Millquarters Community, as well as Citizens with Coffee County. Cooking, making freeze cups, candy apples, baked peanuts, and potato pies were her main hobbies.

Mother Ola Mae Watts labored for many years at Lillie's Café in Douglas, GA. She also worked at South Georgia State College for many years serving in Cafeteria. Mother Watts later did housekeeping jobs from time to time. She was a member of the Eastern Star, as well as, The Women's Missionary Association.

Dining out at Golden Corral, taking trips to visit family in Tampa, FL, and Valdosta, GA, making you laugh, walking downtown to shop, and dressing up with her beads, and jewelry was a significant part of her lifestyle.

The love, giving, and sharing of herself that touched so many hearts and minds, both young and old will truly be missed but never forgotten.

She spent her later years at Vista Park Retirement Home of Douglas, GA until here the sweet, peaceful day of rest on June 25, 2019

She was preceded in death by her parents: Lonnie Young and Viola Kendrick Young. Husband: Willie Lee Watts, Sister: Minnie Mae Young Woodson, Son: Tommy Lee Watts, Grand-Daughter: Angela Watts-Williams and one Great-Granddaughter: Tempest Williams.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one son: James (Mattie) Watts of Newark, N.J. Four Daughters: Ethel Lee West, Pearline (Clyde) McClelland, Ella Mae (Late John) Smith, Othel(Willie) Williams, all of Douglas, GA. One Step-Son: Leon Sutton of Douglas, GA.

Twenty-two grandchildren: oldest grand-daughter Madean Fields and oldest grandson: Johnny Williams. Fifty-two great-grandchildren and fifty-eight great-great-grandchildren.
