OBITUARY

Ms. Gracie Mae (Sanders) Sims was born January 7, 1939, to the late Arizona (Givens) and Theodore Sanders in Broxton, Georgia. She was married to the late Freddie Lee Sims for fifty-five years until his death September 7, 2011.

Ms. Gracie attended school at Lott's Crossing of the Coffee County school system. She was known to be a hard and faithful worker. She retired from Coffee Regional Hospital as a cook. She loved serving and caring for others. Gracie loved fishing and gardening also. She was an active member of Broxton Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Pastor Arthur Robinson. After her health failed, she became a resident of Shady Acres (Vista Park Health and Rehab) on May 31, 2006.

In addition to her parents and husband Gracie is preceded in death by one son: Freddie Lee Sims Jr., and six siblings: Thelma Sanders, Cleveland Sanders, Willie Sanders, Aretha Poole, Josie Sanders, and Hazel Hention Rogers.

She leaves to cherish her memories; six children: Gwendolyn (Larry) Moore, Bobby (Linell) Sims, Willie Sims, Sharon Callwood, Pamela (Jose) Mendez, and James Sims; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-three great-grandchildren; three brothers: Jerome Sanders and Clinton (Martha) Sanders both of Miami, Fl. and Theodore Sanders Jr. of Broxton, Ga.; one sister: Louie Sanders Fussell of Lumber City, Ga. and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
