OBITUARY

Kathalene Longs was born on September 29, 1938, to the late Levi Longs Sr. and Irell Davis Longs. She attended school in the Coffee County School System. Later in life, she married Ira Pace and moved to Brooklyn, New York. She was a housekeeper for many years in New York and Douglas, Ga., at C.R.M.C. and South Georgia State College.

She was affectionately known as "Cat" by all that knew her. She was a pistol. She loved to look good even if she was only going to work. She had to have her face made up. She had that hair on point and those five-inch heels on. She was just being Cat.

She was a member of St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church. She was a faithful usher and sung in the choir until her health failed.

She departed this life on October 5, 2019, at Vista Park Nursing Home in Douglas, Ga. She was preceded in death by her husband: Ira Pace; parents: Levi Longs Sr. and Irell Davis Longs; two sisters: Annie Pearl Longs and Evelyn Longs; one brother: Sander "Tiny" Lee Longs and one nephew: Willie James "Dub" Brockington Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories; a loving sister: JoAnn L. Brockington; one brother: Levi (Linda) Longs Jr.; four brothers-in-law: Melvin (Naomia) Pace of Savannah, Ga., Shelley Pace Jr. of Savannah, Ga., Willie Pace of Douglas, Ga.; and Marvin (Janet) Pace of Stockbridge, Ga.; two sisters-in-law: Magalene Pace of Ambrose, Ga. and Lillian Pace of Atlanta, Ga. She also leaves to cherish her memories a host of nieces, nephews, adopted daughter: Chandra Davis, adopted son, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
