

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside
the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell
in the house of the LORD for ever

Obituary

Thomas Nathaniel Dukes, Jr was born to the late Thomas Nathaniel Dukes and Gladys Smith Dukes on November 18, 1936, in Douglas, Georgia

June, as he was affectionately called, graduated from George Washington Carver High School. After graduation, he enlisted in the United States Navy, where he remained for the next twenty (20) years. While in the navy, he served as a cook and later became a chef. The joy of cooking remained a vital part of his life as he continued cooking for family and friends. After retiring, he returned home to Douglas and became an active member of the local Lester Smith American Legion, Post 515.

Thomas enjoyed having cookouts at his home and built what we called a "clubhouse", an outdoor place with air-conditioning, tables, and chairs to accommodate all that came by. He enjoyed fishing and watching sports on television.

June leaves to cherish his memories, five sisters, Helen Harrell, Virginia Harris, Douglas, Georgia; Etta Davis, West Palm Beach, Florida; Mary Pugh and Alberta Montgomery, Wilmington, Delaware; one brother, Samuel Dukes, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, friends, and a special friend J.J. Wimberley.
