

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever

About Her

Psalm 34:18 The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit

Betty Jean Harrington Williams was the middle child of three born to the late Alphonso Harrington Sr and Rose Redding Harrington of Douglas, GA. Additionally, preceding her in death were her brother-in-law James P Pope and best friend/sister Doris Agnes Pope.

Even as a child, Betty loved everyone. She cared deeply about her family and friends, and it showed in her calls, texts, and generous hugs. Her last words to you before hanging up or leaving would be, "I love you, I love you more, or I love you most."

Betty went to school locally in Douglas and proudly participated as a majorette in high school. After graduating high school, she married James Williams and before entering the workforce, where she worked at several local companies, with the last being the City of Douglas, where she loved her friends and coworkers.

Betty was the mother to two children Tracy Williams Davis and Corey Williams. Outside of her children, the greatest joy for Betty was her grand and great-grandchildren, who affectionately called her "Gran." Her face would light up, and she would make sure she checked on them almost daily by call or text. Their friends adopted the name and called her "Gran" as well, and she loved it.

On Friday, December 13, 2019, our lives were changed forever when our mom, grandmother, and sister transitioned to be with the Lord. She leaves behind a host of family friends and others that will forever miss "Gran" in our lives. We will miss her dearly.

Immediate family members left to remember Betty are daughter Tracy (Nate) Davis and son Corey Williams. One brother Alphonso Harrington and Sister-in-law Linda Faye Harrington, sister-in-law Dorothy (James) Graves, Brother-in-laws Fred (Alma) Williams and J L Handcox. Grandchildren Tiffani (SSG Alton II) Bennett, Kimbralee Reed, SGT Eldridge (Jessica) Calloway Jr, Jamara Calloway and Brandi Reed (God-Grand), Joshua (Sasha) Davis, Christopher (Tivana) Davis and Diorossi (Tamara) Davis: 11 Great Grands: Jordan, AJ, Kameron, Kaylen, Kylie, Londyn Rose, Jai, Jayce, Aubree, Chris, and Caden. Special Niece Malika Harrington and Special Cousins: Patricia (Tyrone) Williams and Sister/Cousin Darryl Johnson and a host of other family and friends.
