

Poem

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A peace made vacant in our hearts
That never can be filled
And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we loved so dear

OBITUARY

Hosea was born on October 20, 1942, to the late Jessie and Claudie Mae Marshall Vickers. Hosea was raised in Ambrose, Georgia, and was educated in the Irwin County School System.

Hosea gave his life to Christ under the leadership of Pastor James Stephon Deen at First African Baptist Church. Hosea was a caring friend to many, a mentor and role model for young men and women. He was a foundation and pillar for his family and community. He was liked, loved, and respected by those he encountered in his walk of life.

Hosea was no stranger to the world of work. He worked many years self-employed as a farmer. He was a former employee of Claxton Poultry, D.L. Lee and Sons, and Golden Poultry. He was most proud of being a business owner of Vickers Tree Planting for over 30 years.

In addition to his parents, Hosea was preceded in death by a son, three brothers, and two sisters.

He leaves to cherish his memories: a devoted wife: Ozell Litman of Alma, Georgia; two daughters: Tina Crosby (Stacy) and Renee V. Mumford of Alma, Georgia; one son: Hosea Vickers Jr (Shelvie) of Alma, Georgia; nine grandchildren: Tempestt Newson, Basil Stephens, Chris Noble (Ashley), Mark Mumford (Rebecca), Keiair Wertz, Deandre Noble, Kara Moore, Aeriton Moore, and Shantel Vickers of Alma, Georgia; thirteen great grandchildren; four sisters: Melissa Barlow of Fayetteville, Georgia, Pearl Morgan and Betty Wesley (William) of Alma, Georgia, and Daisy Vickers (Larry) of Rozelle, New Jersey; one brother: Leon Vickers of Alma, Georgia; one aunt: Dorothy Jordan of Apopka, Florida; one uncle: Clyde Marshall (Bedonia) of Ocilla, Georgia; one sister in law: Mary Vickers of Elizabeth, New Jersey; a special son: Dale Morris of Alma, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, and endearing friends.
