

Annette

She walks with grace

She talks with authority

Her smile lights up the place

Her position is seniority

She's as delicate as a flower

She's as strong as a lion

There's beauty in her power

She's Proverbs 27:17, she sharpens iron

She's a teacher

She's a mother

She's a sister

She's a friend and so much more

She is everything we adore

Life Reflections

Annette Jackson Bennett was born on January 13, 1958, in Willachoochee, Georgia, to the late Willie C and late Claudia M. Jackson Sr. She attended Atkinson County Public Schools and graduated with the class of 1976. During that time, she joined and became a member of St. Paul A.M.E. in Willachoochee, Georgia.

Annette began working at Golden Poultry after graduation, which she was employed for several years before retiring. She then decided to further her education at East Central Tech in Douglas, where she completed the training to become a phlebotomist and certified nursing assistant. After she received her certification, she began to work for Shady Acres, Baptist Village, and Safe Haven throughout the year until she became disabled.

She is preceded in death by three brothers Robert Baker, Willie Baker, and Terry Jackson.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: one daughter Kala Bennett; two sons: Aaron Bennett and Kelvin (Teresa) Hall all of Douglas, Georgia; five sisters: Mary Dell Bailey of Willachoochee, Georgia, Gail (Paul) Davis of Ft. Myers, Florida, Connie (Jesse) Myers of Cape Coral, Florida, Margie J. McCarter of Valdosta, Georgia and Aurdell Baker Jackson of Ft. Myers, Florida; two brothers Christopher Jackson of Pearson, Georgia and Willie C. (Louvenia) Jackson Jr. of Nashville, Georgia. She also leaves to cherish her memories eight grandchildren, and a host of niece and nephews who loved her dearly.
