

Your Spirit - A Tribute To My

Daddy

I know that no matter what
 You will always be with me.
 When life separates us
 I'll know it is only your soul
 Saying goodbye to your body
 But your spirit will be with me always.
 When I see a bird chirping on a nearby branch
 I will know it is you singing to me.
 When a butterfly brushes gently by me so care freely
 I will know it is you assuring me you are free from pain.
 When the gentle fragrance of a flower catches my attention
 I will know it is you reminding me
 To appreciate the simple things in life.
 When the sun shining through my window awakens me
 I will feel the warmth of your love.
 When I hear the rain pitter patter against my window sill
 I will hear your words of wisdom
 And will remember what you taught me so well
 That without rain trees cannot grow
 Without rain flowers cannot bloom
 Without life's challenges I cannot grow strong.
 When I look out to the sea
 I will think of your endless love for your family.

When I think of mountains, their majesty and magnificence
 I will think of your courage.
 No matter where I am
 Your spirit will be beside me
 For I know that no matter what
 You will always be with me.

Love Always Vel

About Him

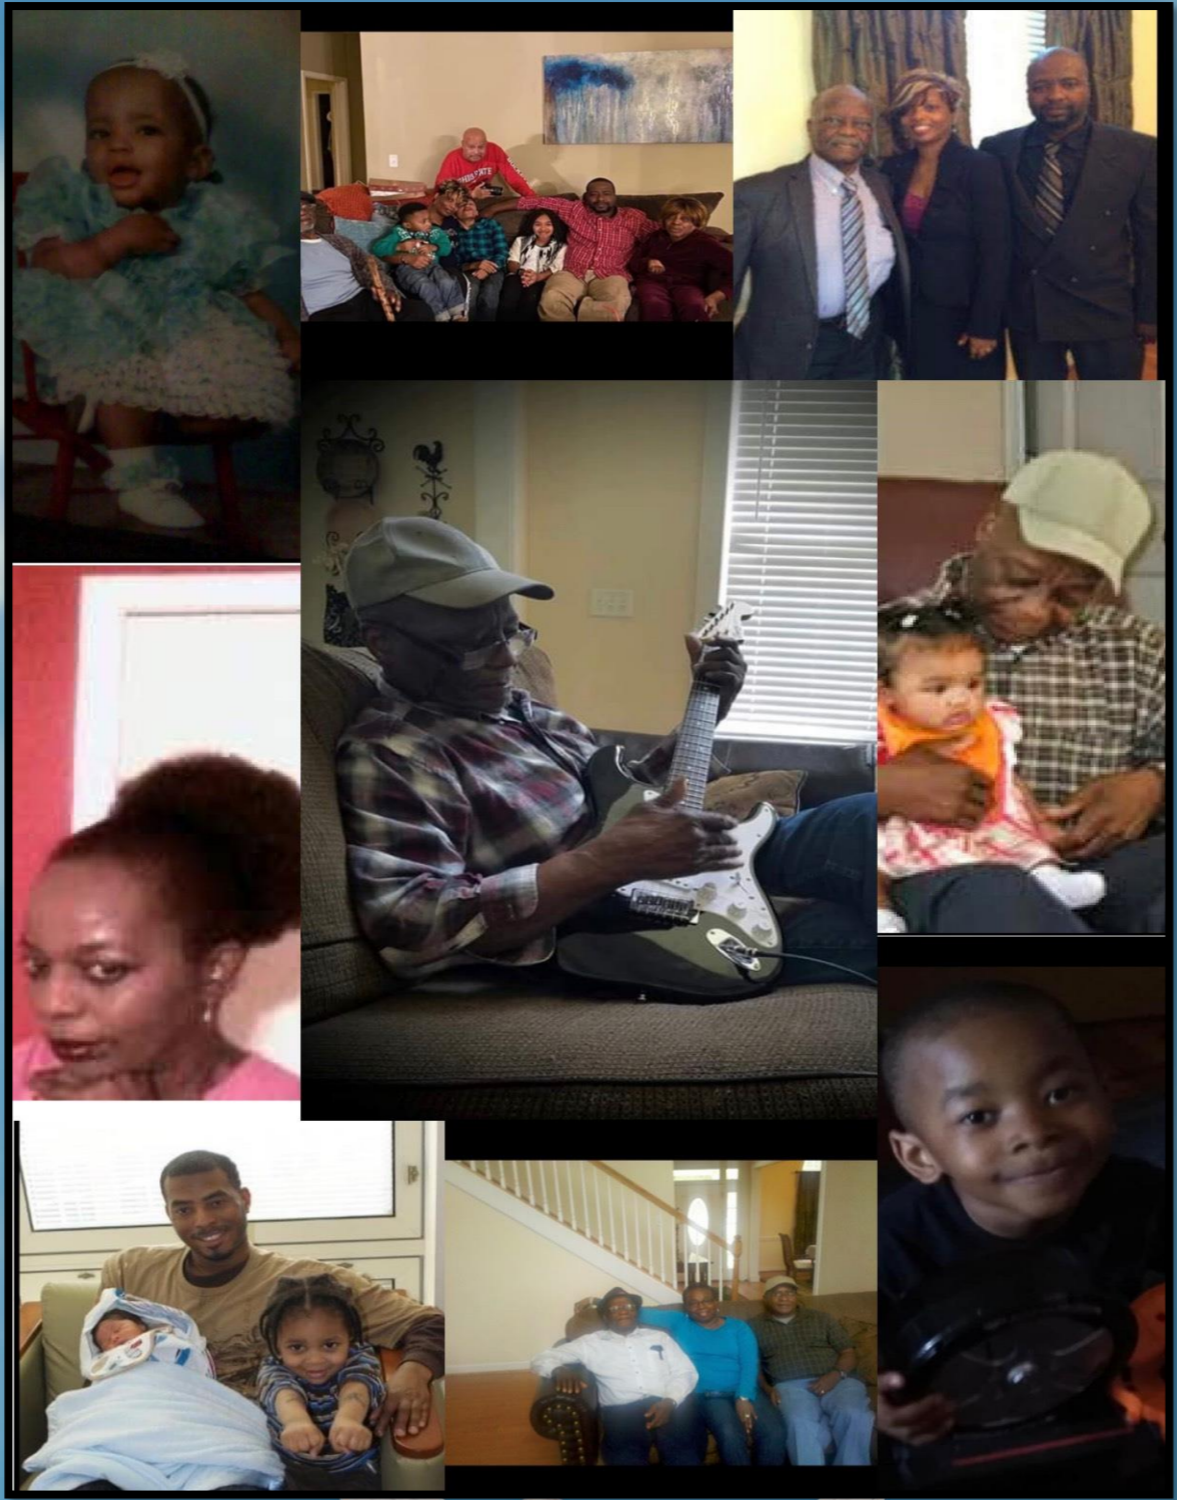

Charles Cecil Gainey was born on November 20, 1933, in Cochran, Georgia to the late Harvey and Eugenia Carr-Gainey. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at the young age of 13 and rededicated his heart on Sunday, May 3, 2020, in a special gathering with his family in Rincon Ga. He peacefully departed this life on May 7, 2020, surrounded by his loving and supportive family in Rincon Ga.

He was highly respected and loved by all who encountered him. He was a father figure and role model to many in the community.

Mr. Gainey was a professional mechanic for Cowart Ford in Douglas, Georgia, for many years. He was a self-trained drywall installer as well as a skilled construction worker. In the late 1960's he moved from Douglas Ga, to Savannah, Ga. where he worked for Grainger and later owned a successful construction business and worked as a craftsman and supervised a small crew until his health failed him in Savannah, Georgia, in 2004. One of his favorite past times was riding his Harley motorcycle. He would go for rides along the rural Ga highways and dream about life and how much he loved his family. He was a self-taught musician that blew the harmonica and played the guitar. His love for music was inherited from generations of his musically talented family. Thus leaving him with a passion for playing the guitar.

Charles Gainey was predeceased by two sons John Richard Gainey and Milton Charles Gainey. He leaves to cherish his memories: six children: Mary (Richard) Graham of Douglas, Georgia, Judy McDuffie of Douglas, Georgia, Velveta (John) Barr of Rincon, Georgia, Jauvon Gainey of Rincon, Georgia, Wayne Hazzard of Savannah, Georgia, Tim Fuel of Atlanta, Georgia; his sister-in-laws: Deddie Bell Parker of Douglas, Georgia, and Berta Mae Gainey of Dexter, Georgia; a special cousin: Virginia Gainey of Pearson, Georgia; dear friend: Johnnie Mae Aikens; twenty grandchildren, thirteen greatgrandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
