

In Loving Memory

If raindrops fall in Heaven Lord, please take my Sister's hand

And dance with her upon a cloud so high,

Then when the storm is over if a rainbow should appear

Somewhere off in the distant sky,

Gently take her by the hand and lead her on her way

So that she might find the rainbows end,

Then as she smiles in wonder at the treasures Heaven holds

Wrap her safely in Your arms and dance with her again,

For you see she was an angel Lord her upon this earth

And though I'll be forever grateful she was mine,

I simply was not ready when I had to let her go

And I still think about her all the time,

So tell her that I love her Lord more than she'll ever know

Then gently place a kiss upon her cheek,

For though she is in Heaven now I want her to know

She still means the world and all to me.

Proverbs 3: 5-6

5 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

About Her

Sandra Elaine Hall was born in Atkinson County in Pearson, Georgia, to Addie B. Hall and Willie Lee Perkins on January 25, 1962. She graduated from Coffee High School in 1980. She went on to attend South Georgia College in Douglas, Georgia and Georgia Southern University in Statesboro, Georgia. She obtained her Master's Degree in Chemistry. She earned her certification as a Medical Lab Technician (MLT).

She started her employment at Coffee Regional Medical Center in Douglas, Georgia. She has worked for other hospitals in Georgia, including Fairview Park Hospital in Dublin, Georgia, and Emanuel Medical Center in Swainsboro, Georgia. She later took her career abroad, traveling to Alaska and Hawaii for two years until her health started to deteriorate, which brought her home to be with family.

Ms. Hall is preceded in death by her grandparents; Melvin and Leatha Mae Williams of Pearson, Georgia; and one brother Hubert Lee Hall Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories: loving parents: Addie B Hall of Douglas, Georgia, and Willie Lee Perkins of Willachoochee, Georgia; four brothers: Curtis E. Hall of Douglas, Georgia, Michael S. Hall of Waycross, Georgia, Frederick Perkins of Douglas, Georgia, and Alaric R. (Cora) Hall of Fitzgerald, Georgia; two sisters; Espronza Perkins Brooks of Macon, Georgia and Willene F. (Gerald) Hall Preston of Douglas, Georgia; eight nieces, seven nephews, and host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
