

*In Memory of a Special
Son*

*It's sometimes hard to know why some things happen as they do for so much joy and happiness was centered around you It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep your near You're thought about with pride
Son
with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will still remain.*

Life Reflections

We pause to pay tribute to our loved one, Lontario D. Jones. God looked down and called one of His angels' home on May 22, 2020. Lontario was born July 22, 1975, to Horace and Diane Jones in Broxton, Georgia. He graduated from Coffee High School in 1994. During his years in high school, he excelled in football and wrestling. After graduation, he became a Commercial Truck Driver, which he loved, and this became his career. He loved traveling around the world, transporting goods, and exploring God's greatness.

Lontario was a man of great character. He loved to spend time with family and friends and was well respected throughout his community for his generosity and loving heart. He won over many with his southern hospitality and his mouth-watering barbeque. He was a man who would give without question and expected nothing in return.

He listen as his daddy boast about being a great grill master and how delicious his chicken and ribs tasted. He was a true "momma's boy." He loved and respected his mother and done his best to put a smile on her face. A man who loves and respects his mother will always love and respect all women, and this was exhibited in his relationship with his significant other.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving parents Horace and Diane Jones of Broxton, Georgia. Three sisters: LaCarol (James) Cummings of Douglas, Georgia, Shannon Jones of Macon, Georgia, Charity (Tony) Norton of Macon, Georgia. Nephews and Niece: Rey'Shannon Jones, Brooklyn Jones, Amari Jones, Jameson Cummings, Devan Littleton, Brayden Brockington, and Landon Cummings. One special daughter, Amber Roberts. A very special friend, Laquainta Brewton of Douglas, Georgia. Four special brothers: Victor Bennett, Octavius Jones, Wayne Schley, and Brian Walker. One special uncle, more like a brother, Jimmy Thomas. A host of uncles, aunts, cousins, extended family, and friends.
