

She's in the sun, the wind, the rain,
 She's in the air you breathe
 With every breath you take.
 She sings a song of hope and cheer.
 There's no more pain, no more fear.
 You'll see her in the clouds above.
 Hear her whisper word of love,
 You'll be together before long,
 Until then, listen to her song

Precious Memories

Obituary

Sylvia Ann Hunt was born in Douglas, Georgia, on September 17, 1953, to her beloved parents Jessie Bell Simpson (Hunt) and Henry Hunt. So many people loved Sylvia. She always keeps a smile on her face and loved to make people laugh. She always sat on her sofa with her door open looing straight out of it. She loved herself some chocolate milk and cheese. She loved some pork even though she knew that she couldn't have it; she made her way "lol." A day never went past that she didn't call her son Tony Hunt and aggravate him. While on the phone with Tony, she use to laugh because she thought it was so funny.

Sylvia Ann left us with so many memories we can carry on to remember her off. So sad and suddenly, she departed this life on June 16, 2020, to begin a new one, at the age of 66.

Sylvia was preceded in death by one sister Rudean Hunt; one brother, Henry Hunt; four uncles: James, Troy Lee, Willie, and Henry Simpson; and six aunts: Mary, Madene, Lousie, Nanimae, Betty-Jean, and Eloise.

Sylvia leaves to cherish her memories: one son: Tony (CeeAshia Beckett) of Douglas, Georgia; one grandchild: Tony Hunt Jr; one sister: Mary Ann Hunt of Douglas, Georgia; one uncle: Paul (Susie) Simpson of Blackshear, Georgia; two nephews: Taurus Hunt of Douglas, Ga., and Ferlonzo(Fenellfee) Hunt of Broxton, Ga; one niece: Jessie (Alex) Higgins of Waycross, Ga; great-nieces & great-nephews: Alex Lamar Higgins, Jahzara Hunt, Jordan Thomas, Javiyun Hodge, Tyquana Hunt, Shantavia Hunt, and Ferlonzo Hunt Jr.; one goddaughter Jessica Baker of Fitzgerald, Ga; a special friend: Sylvia Sparkman and a host of other relatives and friends.
