

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Life Reflections

Elder Clarence Clements, 86 years old, left the loving embrace of his family to enter the presence of his Lord and Savior on July 5, 2020, at his home in Jacksonville, Georgia.

Elder Clarence Clements was born on June 7, 1934, to the late Hallie Clements and Emma Lou Pace in Jacksonville, Georgia. He was known as a kind, generous, and hard-working man who always put his family first. He exemplified the importance of love, faith, and family. Since an early age, a man who honored God in every aspect of life was a devoted member of the Tabernacle Church of God in Christ.

Elder Clarence Clements moved to Detroit, Michigan, to begin his life where he worked at a Steel Factory. Elder Clements married the love of his life Mae Dan Clark in 1955, and she has been the apple of his eye ever since. Elder Clarence Clements moved back to Jacksonville, Georgia where he became a pastor. He was dedicated to what God called him out to be until he became ill.

Elder Clarence Clements was preceded in death by three brothers and three sisters.

His memory will forever be treasured by his loving wife, Mae Dan Clements of Jacksonville, Georgia; one sister Lois Waller of Detroit Michigan; one sister-in-law Geraldine Clements of McRae, Georgia ; one son Clarence G. (Janice) Clements of Jacksonville, Georgia; a special daughter and caregiver Ve'yonna Clements of Jacksonville, Georgia; four grandchildren: Rashad Clements of Douglas, Georgia, Teia Clements of Jacksonville, Georgia, Jasmine Clements of Atlanta, Georgia, and Kevonte (Destiny) Thomas of McRae, Georgia; eleven greatgrandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
