

In Memory of a Special Son

It's sometimes hard to know why some things happen as they do for so much joy and happiness was centered around you

It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep your near

*You're thought about with pride
Son
with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will still remain.*

I will always love you My only regret is that if I had known that the last time I saw you, would be the last time,
I would have hugged you a little tighter,
Told you I loved you a little louder.
My mind knows that you are gone,
But my heart will never accept it.
I will miss and love you forever.

The Obituary

Jacarri Shanterrius Chapman was born March 25, 2000, in Douglas, GA. He attended school in the Coffee County school system and in the Troup County school system. He was attending West Ga Technical College, where he was majoring in Automotive. Jacarri was also training to be a boxer.

Growing up, his family and friends would call him by his nickname “Blade” because he loved the character. As he grew up and moved to Lagrange, GA, he was given the nickname “Rap” because he would talk A LOT! He departed July 1, 2020, in Troup County. He will be remembered by his big smile and his silly personality.

A host of grandparents preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories to his mother, Kazianna (Patrick) Woodyard, of Lagrange GA and his father, Niki Chapman of Douglas GA; Brother, Darryl Thompson of Great Falls, MT; Stepbrothers, Kyzer Woodyard, Patrick Woodyard Jr., Nick Dantzler, and Alex Dantzler, all of LaGrange GA; One Sister-In-Law, Tia Thompson of Great Falls, MT.; One niece, Madilyn Jaye Thompson of Great Falls, MT.; Grandparents, Debra (Nathan) Taylor of Douglas GA, Keith (Natasha) Barfield of Flint, MI., Jimmy (Ann Marie) Eady of Douglas GA; great-grandmother, Joann Brockington; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

Special honor: Trevion Dean, Terry Dean, and Ralph Meadows, who lost their lives with Jacarri. They will never be forgotten.
