

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

The Obituary

Thaddeus Tyrone Alls was born on September 1, 1970, in Douglas, Georgia, to Betty Jo Seizeme and the late John E. Alls. He graduated from Coffee High School. He spent most of his life working at Golden Poultry. He loved fishing, hunting, and cooking for others. He also loved being around family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father John E. Alls of Elmira, New York.

He leaves to cherish memories: a loving mother Betty Seizeme of Douglas, Georgia; seven children: Thaddeus Alls Jr. of St. Peterburg, FL., Kewone Alls, Cameron Alls both of Douglas, Georgia, Jessica Alls, and Shay Williams both of St. Peterburg, Fl., Zala Alls of Douglas, Georgia, and Madison Eason of Albany, Georgia; two sisters: Tresa (Fredrick) Kerr of Brunswick, Georgia and Tina Alls of Douglas, Georgia; three grandchildren; three aunts: Flossie Curry of Charlotte, North Carolina, Mary Rush and Retha William of both Douglas, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.

*Lovingly Submitted
