

To My Grandmother

To my Grandmother, who I knew so very well, to me you were the only one who I could always tell. In hard times you comforted me, and in good times you made me smile, but no matter the situation you always went that extra mile.

The morning before you left us, I listened to your singing voice, but little did I know you were singing in rejoice. You took care of me for so long and you never moaned or groaned and I know you will still watch over me even though you're gone.

I can have peace in my heart because you told me you were not in any pain, and I'll carry on your legacy and I know everyone else will do the same. Your memory will be with me forever which will never part. God has you in his keeping, but you will always be in my heart.

Love, Monica

Life Reflections

"Mama Lois" as she was known by many, was quiet the personality. She was a loving person with a heart of gold. She honored Christ by being a faithful woman of God. She was indeed an inspiration. She could quote the bible backwards and forward and was rarely seen without it. She loved God and spread his word to anyone she'd meet. She was known for her quick wit and ability to make people laugh. She loved her family, dearly. And the one thing that everyone could agree on, she was not the one to hold her tongue "What came up, came out."

Mother Lois Rice was married to the late John P Rice, who passed away in 1945 during WWII in Belgium, Europe.

Mother Rice was the last of nine children. Elijah Williamson, Goldie Turner, Lillia Shaw, Anna Williamson, Solomon Williamson, Emma Mae Carson, Minnie Brinson, and Calvin Williamson, all preceded her in death.

Mother Lois Rice was the mother of five children. She was preceded in death by twin daughters, Mamie Ruth Gordon and Mamie Nell Baker-Minor. She was the grandmother of eighteen grandchildren, thirty-seven great-grandchildren, and fifteen great-great-grandchildren.

Mother Lois Rice was a member of the Greater Pleasant Temple of Valdosta, Ga, under the leadership of Pastor Bernard Robinson. She was a long time member of Hightower Memorial Temple, Douglas, Ga, where she served as a nursing usher under the leadership of Bishop J.L Litman. She was employed at Coffee Regional Hospital as a dietician for 30 plus years before her retirement. She was an active member of The NAACP.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted children; Emma Hobbs, Tommy (Delores) Rice, of Douglas, Ga, James (Mechelle) Rice Sr, of Valdosta, Ga and a granddaughter she raised as her own Monica Carter, Valdosta, Ga; Her devoted grandchildren; Wade Baker, Douglas, Ga, Dianetra (Staunia) Moore, Angela (Gregory) Brown, Audrey Jackson, Latrenda (Greg) Barcus, all of Jacksonville, Fl, Kimberly Ambersly of Greenville, SC, Cedric Gordon of Baltimore, MD, Sterling Hobbs of Valdosta, Ga, Sam (Ophelia) Hobbs of Douglas, Ga, Tony Hobbs of Waycross, Ga, Chad McQueen of Atlanta, Ga, Debra Brown of Douglas, Ga, Monica Carter, Latasha Barnes of Valdosta, Ga, J.D Rice Jr of Detroit, Mi, Jasmine Rice of Valdosta, Ga, Christopher Copeland of Atlanta, Ga and Carrie (Ben) McGaha of Valdosta, Ga, 37 great-grandchildren, and 15 great-great-grandchildren; her devoted friends: Sis Ruth Holmes, Ms. Margeret Williams, Mrs. Claudia Jordan, and Dea. Ricky Foster; her devoted caretakers Travis Cooper and Jasmine Grier; her devoted god-daughters: Mrs. Evelyn Lowther, Mia Williams, and Jutecia Pinkney; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
