

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Ms. Dora Lee Wilson is the daughter of the late Sherman and Lorene Hill. She was born on February 2nd, 1950, in Meridian, Mississippi. At the age of one, she, along with her family, relocated to Kirkland, Georgia.

As a student, she attended Atkinson County Training School in 1968 she graduated. After graduation, she briefly relocated to Maine and was part of the Peace Corp. Because of her dedication to the Lord, she later attended Theology school and obtained an Associate's Degree.

In 1970 she married Daniel Wilson, and from their union came three beautiful children – all boys. Because her love for children was so strong, she fostered many and adopted four children. She was making them a family of 9.

As an adult, she was a hard worker. Her early years were spent at Douglas Foods and Walmart Distribution Center, and in her later years, she was a substitute teacher in Coffee County and a Dietary Aide which was right on track with her natural love for children and food. As an active member of the community, she was well known for baking and providing meals. Amongst community favorites were her holiday turkey dressing and flavorful cakes. Also, Ms. Dora loved a good yard sale. If she thought you needed or could use something, she would not hesitate to get it. That's just the kind of loving and thoughtful person she was.

With her Theology degree, she transitioned into ministry and became Minister Wilson at her lifelong church home Pine Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. She also served as a Sunday school teacher and an active member of the choir. Ms. Dora loved to serve and praise the Lord. She was a good and faithful member to her church and community and will be sorely missed by everyone she touched.

She was preceded in death by her son Demond C. Wilson, three brothers Shelly Hill, Billy Hill, and Milton Hill and four sisters Bertha Hill, Rosa Lee Harris, Berta Mae Mansfield, and Mary Hill-Parnell.

She is survived by her husband Daniel Wilson, three sons, Donta (Sada) Wilson, Desmond Wilson, Tim (Julia) Wilson, and three daughters, Adrece Wilson, Sharon Wilson, and Tonsharika Wilson. Two sisters, Alma Hill and Josephine Wilson, three brothers Ray (Pearline) Hill, Herman (Virginia) Hill, and DeLouis (Rose) Bell. One sister in law Theresa Hill.

She is also survived by 16 grandchildren -- Desiree Wilson, Daniella Wilson, Taniya Wilson, Desmond Wilson Jr., Tytiyana Wilson, Deshawn Wilson, Omani King, Timias Wilson, Calina Wilson, Phoenix Wilson, Serenity Moses, Demond Wilson, Devontae Wilson, Radrekus Wilson, Dorianna Mitchell, Donta Wilson Jr. – and a host of nieces and nephews.
