Ethel Landers was born March 12, 1937, to the late Charlie Van Swain and Deotha Clark of Jacksonville, Georgia. She was the widow of the late Curtis Landers Sr

Ethel was a hard worker and retired from AYP in McRae, Georgia. After retirement, she took on many other roles, including cooking and helping the elder in her community. She was an active member of New Salem Baptist Church until her health failed. Ethel was known for her quick wit and a great sense of humor. Ethel loved to sing and dance. She was a joy to be around. Ethel was greatly loved by her family and friends without measure.

Ethel was preceded in death by eleven siblings: Louis Clark, Buster Clark, Ociller Armstrong, Alice Smith, Shirley Swain, Eddie Swain, Joe Swain, Henry Swain, Maude Swain, Harvey Swain, Iula McQueen and Emory Swain; and one granddaughter Kayla Landers.

She leaves to cherish her memories: four children Leon Landers of Jacksonville, Georgia, Cynthia Landers of Jacksonville, Georgia, Curtis (Kimberly) Landers of Douglas, Georgia, Derek (Charnae) Landers of Douglas, Georgia; eight grandchildren: Cherette Landers, Kakeisha Landers, Bianca Landers, Emmanuel Tukes, Tanisha Landers, Zion Landers, Yuserian Landers, and Qu'Naya Landers; six great-grandchildren; five siblings: Carrie Collins, Grace (Cleveland) Wilcox, Mary Williams, John Thomas (Linnie Pearl) Clark, and Cj Swain; one aunt Ophelia Warren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
