

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Jacob Hill was born in Windsor North Carolina on February 28th, 1937 to the late Mr. John and Ethel Hill. He attended school in Bertie County North Carolina. He had two son's Jacob and Curtis Hill, three sisters and three brothers to preceded him in death.

Jacob left North Carolina at the age of 25 to go to New York City, where he met and married the love of his life Ms. Isabella Cannon on March 28th, 1965

Jacob worked at 3B's Departments store for several years; from there, he did maintenance at Barton Candy factory until that location closed. He retired in May 2002 from the Round table Senior Citizen Center as a maintenance worker.

In November 2005 Jacob and Isabella moved to Douglas GA. He always talked about having a garden, and that's exactly what he did. He loved taking care of his garden, and no one could take care of it like he could. He kept the grass and bushes trimmed

He loved to laugh and make others laugh with his quick come back comments. He loved his wife and children dearly, and they love him too. Jacob was a hard-working man, a great provider, wonderful husband (he took care of his Brown Sugar that's what he called Isabella.) Best Dad Ever. Growing up, our friends loved him and called him dad too.

Jacob Hill Sr. leaves to cherish his memories: his wife Isabella Hill of 54 years; 3 daughters: Valerie, Saundra, Endia (Jewell Spellman); two sons: Anthony (Chanda) Jones and Oswald Hill; one daughter-in-law: Tara Walker Hill; thirteen grandchildren to name a few: Vaushon, Anthony, Destiney, Lance, Xavier, Zaniya, Jiaquana; fifteen great-grandchildren; brothers and sisters-in-law: Charles Pugh, James (Alvinia) Campbell, Jerry(Phyllis) Cannon, Leacy (Coy) Turner, Etta Campbell, Viola Hamilton, And a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.
