

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Jimmie Watson Sr. is grateful for all the acts of love, kindness, and sympathy shown to them during this time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness, sympathetic smiles, silent embraces, prayers, and loving words have all helped to sustain us during this grief period. Life Reflections

Jimmie Watson, 80, of Broxton, GA, passed away at his home on Wednesday, September 30, 2020. He was born on August 17, 1940, to the late Willie and Alice Hardwick.

Jimmie was a loving father and husband who worked hard to give his family what they needed. As for the community, he would do almost anything to help out a friend in need. Best known for his tall tales, Jimmie made everyone he encountered laugh even in times where many were struggling with their own problems of day-to-day life. He saw laughter as a remedy of the soul, and he knew a little laughter goes a long way.

As an avid sportsman, Jimmie loved all types of sports, especially if the teams were from Georgia or one in which his children or grandchildren actively participated in. He loved the competition and excitement of the game up until he was called home.

Jimmie is preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Emma and Lucille; and numerous other family members.

Jimmie is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Helen; three daughters, Lois (Bobby) Fletcher, Mary Watson, and Jacquelyn (Frank) Ferrell; one son, Jimmy (Justine) Watson; grandchildren, Kevin Fletcher, Tamiaka (Reggie) Weeks, Theriton Wells, Kesha Fletcher, Bobby Fletcher Jr, David (Brandi) Camak, Maurice Camak, Kimberly Camak, Pernel Williams, Nathaniel Watson, and Noelani Watson; and numerous great-grandchildren and other family members.
