

If Tears

If tears could make you stay, you would be here today.

If tears could bring you back, we wouldn't be facing these facts

You are gone from our view, and we will forever miss you

Life can be taken for granted, but that's not the way God planned it

But He did set an appointed time and this day He had you in mind

While tears may fall like the rain our love for you will remain the same

If tears could make you stay, if tears could bring you back

If tears, if tears, if tears!

Life Reflections

“I fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith...”

Jonathan Wade Moore was born on June 20, 1967, Douglas, GA, to Luecilla Moore and the late Andrew Curtis. He graduated from Coffee High School in 1986.

He joined the U.S. States Army after graduating and served his country until 1998. While in the United States Army, he earned several medals and awards; Army Commendation Medal (3rd award), Army Achievement Medal (2nd award), National Defense Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, NCO Professional Development Ribbon, Army Service Ribbon, Army Good Conduct Medal (2nd award), Army, Overseas Service Ribbon, Expert Marksmanship Qualification Badge with Rifle Bar.

Upon returning home, he was employed by Wal-Mart Distribution Center and American Wire. His favorite sport was football. He was a die-hard Atlanta Falcons fan!!

He leaves to cherish his memories: wife Madelene P. Moore; mother Luecilla Moore; four brothers: Bennie Moore, Larry (Jackie) Moore, Kenneth Moore, and Ronnie (Michelle) Moore; two sisters: Nadine (Fredrick) Baylor and Annette M. Jackson; nine stepchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
