

Daddy's Remembrance Message

Dad This Was Unexpected For us All. But On Behalf of all of Your Children, Grand Children, Great Grand Children and Everyone Whom you Have Come in Contact With. We All Will Forever Cherish The Many Memories and Special Moment That We Have Shared With you. Gina and I Wish We had Another 50yrs with you on this Earth. We Wanted you to be around to See J'nia Graduate From College, Get Married and Also For you to See Xalyn Grow-Up. To Be A Fine young Man. But We Know you were needed somewhere else. But Those Who Knew and Loved you Knows That you Will Forever be Looking Down and Watching Over your Fours Girls Gina, J'nia, Tammi and Linda We Love and Miss you!

Life Reflections

Mr. Lanorris C. Mobley was born on June 13, 1954, to the late Mack Mobley Sr. and Ethel Franklin in Douglas, Georgia. He graduated from Miami Carol City Senior High School in Miami Gardens, Florida (Class of 1973). He worked for several years with Miami Dade Solid Waste.

Our dad was one of the Best Fisherman in the Land. Everyone always looked forward to him coming in to town with his fish clean, bagged and ready to cook. He also was known for his world famous homemade biscuits.

He is preceded in death by his father Mack Mobley Sr., mother, Ethel Franklin, stepfather Willie Franklin, one sister Katherine Mobley, and one brother Anthony Mobley, two aunts: Ada Taylor and Minnie Pennyamon, three uncles: Jessie Johnson, Nehemiah Johnson, and Frank Johnson; and one nephew: Derek S. Mobley.

He leaves to cherish his memories: four children: Tammi Mobley, Gina Mobley, Aundraea Mobley, and Lanorris Mobley Jr.; four stepchildren: Kiesha Wilson Mathews(Zachary), Wayne Wilson, Micheal Wilson, and Keith Wilson(Asia Moss); one brother: Mack Mobley(Venus); Grandchildren: J'nia Thomas, Ja'nya Brown, Elijah Brown, Sa' mya Brown, Jamurphy Allen IV, Lanorris Mobley III, Maisha Mobley, and Maceo Mobley; one great-grand: Xalyn Messiah Lee Jackson; four aunts: Adlean Jones(Donald Jones Sr), Susan Philpox, Leola Johnson, and Pearl Johnson; two uncles: Ulysee Johnson(Annette Johnson) and William Johnson Jr ;one special niece: Toshiba Mitchell (Keith Mitchell); three great nieces: Caitlin Thomas, LeAnn Thomas, and Lanise Miller; three nephews: Anthony Mobley, Ahmad Rashad Mack Mobley, and Darrell Mobley; and a host of sorrowing relatives, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
