

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun
life holds so many facets this earth is only one.*

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Obituary

Ms. LyKindra Nicole Williams was born on September 23, 1982, in Douglas, Ga, to the parentage of Ms. Samantha Williams Fillmore of Douglas Ga. She attended church at St. James Church of God in Unity. She was a loving daughter and later a big sister. LyKindra was a protector and was very big on family until her demise. She would often clean houses with her mother while helping raise her sister and brother. LyKindra moved to Laurens, South Carolina, in the summer of 2001, then later back to Douglas in 2007, where she resided until she departed this world on November 6, 2020. LyKindra was a devoted daughter and sister, niece, and cousin until her departure.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents Hannah Mae and Johnny Ray Williams; two aunts: Amanda Williams and Katie McAllister; two uncles: Calvin Williams and Clyde Cutler.

She leaves to mourn her memories: a loving mother and stepfather: Samantha (Ronnie) Williams Fillmore of Douglas, Ga, one sister, Angel (Dimitrus) Paschal of Fitzgerald, GA, one brother, Christopher Jamal Lewis of Douglas, GA, one niece, Kenijeiah Berry of Fitzgerald, GA, one nephew, Kenjarvies Lewis of Fitzgerald, GA, whom she loved very much, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and other loving relatives and friends.
