

Peace Be Thine

God saw you were getting weary

So He did what He thought best

He came and stood beside you

And whispered, "Come and rest."

You bade no one a last farewell,

No, not even a good-bye.

You were gone before we knew it,

And only God knows why.

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb.

So He gently closed your loving eyes,

And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

We Love you!

Life Reflections

Leon Smith was born on January 8, 1957, to the late Mr. Roscoe and Ola Mae Smith in Irwin County, Georgia. He received his education in the Irwin County school system. He joined New Beulah Baptist Church, where he attended during his childhood until he moved his membership to Midway Baptist Church.

Leon was a man that wore many hats. He developed a passion for agriculture and driving trucks. Mr. Smith drove trucks for most of his adult life. He would take on any task, anything he can find for his hands to do, and did so without complaining.

Leon was a compassionate person that always strived to meet the needs of others. He was a dedicated, devoted, and reliable man, father, brother, uncle, grandpapa, cousin, and friend. Mr. Smith never met anyone that he did not befriend or thought was beneath him. He had a heart of gold.

Leon was united in marriage to Ms. Linda Faye Smith for many years. Upon this union, he inherited three daughters.

He is preceded in death by one sister: Christine Williams; and two brothers-in-law: Darrell Smith and Rodriquez Smith.

Suddenly, God called his name, and he quietly answered the call to rest. He leaves to cherish his precious memories: one son: Carlton Holden of Ocilla Ga.; three daughters: Lequilla (Marcus) Dennis of Macon Ga; Kristan High, and Keona (Lindsey) Gifford, both of Douglas, Ga.; fifteen grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; three sisters: Bonnie (Earlie) Williams, Linda K. Smith, and Linda S. Smith, all of Douglas Ga.; three brothers: Roscoe (Penny) Smith Jr. of Apopka Fl. Rowland Kenneth Smith of Miami, Fl. and Troy Smith of Douglas, Ga.; two brothers-in-law: Andre "Pulpwood"(Sandra) Smith of Broxton, Ga and Anthony "Chainsaw" Smith of Atlanta, Ga.; two sisters-in-law: Jackie Walker and Shenice (Larry) Preston both of Broxton, Ga.; three aunts: Alinda Pickett and Christine Pickett both of Douglas, Ga. and Clara Mae Smith of Wray, Ga.; three great-aunts: Dorothy Jordan of Apopka Fl., Bedonia Marshall and Dorothy Armour both of Wray, Ga.; and a host of sorrowing nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
