

Poem

You left without warning, Gone so far, so fast. Now all I have are memories of our past with tears of a tomorrow that will never be. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. Until I see you again Nicky, I will forever speak your name, carry your memories and cry of your absence. I will forever love you my dear brother.

Take Your Rest Brother.....

Life Reflections

We pause today to pay tribute to our beloved son, grandson, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend Mr. Nicky Toombs.

Nikiolo Sekyo Toombs, known to his family and friends as Nicky, was born on August 30, 1972, to the parents of John E. Toombs Jr, and the late Christine McFatten. Nicky had the pleasure of having two mothers in his life as he was raised by his aunt, the late Emma Mae Burnett. In the early hours of November 07, 2020, Nicky was suddenly called home to be with the Lord at 48 years old.

Born and raised in Douglas, Georgia, Nicky attended the local schools, and until the last day of his life, he loved his Coffee High Trojans. Nicky was a quiet and shy man that kept to himself but funny and witty with his close family and friends. He was always dependable and reliable to the people in his community, always showing up when asked to do a daily task at any given time. Nicky enjoyed living his life his way to the fullest, unapologetic, with no regrets, happy, and full of life.

Nicky was a wonderful person and loved by all of us that was blessed to share life with him. Nicky will forever be loved, cherished, and remembered by his loved ones.

He is preceded in death by his loving mothers: Christine McFatten, and Emma Burnett; grandparents: Idella McFatten and John Toombs Sr.; and great-grandmother: Ethel Mae Reckley and several aunts and uncles.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: three beloved sisters: Conswello McFatten-McQueen, Maldyn McFatten, and Trina Toombs; three brothers: Kashon Burnett, Bernard Williams, and John Dexter Toombs; one brother in law: Recardos McQueen; two sisters in laws: Jessica Burnett and Monica Toombs; grandmother Hattie L. Whitfield; father: John Edward Toombs; two great aunts: Ruby Mae Fletcher and Mary Ann Hicks; three aunts: Hattie Maddox, Linda Toombs and his special aunt Alice McFatten; one uncle: Herman McFadden; five nieces: India McQueen, Satonia Copeland, Avia Carter, Aja Toombs, and Taricy Toombs; seven nephews: Akeem McQueen, Xavier McFatten, Keondre Burnett, Javon Williams, Austin Toombs, Gregory Toombs, and Taylor Toombs; one great nephew: John Toombs IV and a host of sorrowing and loving cousins, family, friends and his community.

John 14: 27-31

27 Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. 28 You have heard Me say to you, 'I am going away and coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because [a]I said, 'I am going to the Father,' for My Father is greater than I.

29 "And now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe. 30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do.

Arise, let us go from here.
