

Memories

*My memories are what I have left,
and a lesson I will not forget.*

*The time has come when time is no more
and all that's left was once before.*

*The memories so dear and true,
those memories of me and you.*

*Although we fell and stumbled at times,
all those hills were necessary climbs.*

All the times when your heart shined through are the greatest memories I have of you.

I will always remember you, brother of mine.

In my heart I will keep you, so I will be fine.

I will go forward with my head up high.

It might be hard, I cannot lie.

*But in my heart you will be,
moving forward, you with me.*

Eugene, you will forever be remembered and loved!

Your Sister,

Gwen

Life Reflections

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

(1 Thessalonians 4:14)

Brother Eugene Williams, the eldest son of the late Elder Jesse Williams, Jr., and Missionary Bernestine Fields Williams, and the grandson of the late Deacon Amos Fields, Sr., and the late Mrs. Jannie McCray Fields, was born on February 8, 1943.

He attended Carver High and Elementary School, Douglas, Georgia, and later joined the U. S. Army. He was a two-time Vietnam Veteran. Eugene also worked in various job capacities (welding, food processing, railroad, agriculture, and farming).

Eugene was a member of Saints Temple COGIC during his early years of life. In later years, he became a member of Sword & Shield Ministries under the leadership of his younger brother, Elder Jesse Williams, III.

After the demise of his brother/pastor, Eugene's memory of being brought up in the church helped him to realize the importance to continue to be in church and the necessity of having a church home and a pastor; therefore, he chose Bethlehem Temple COGIC for his new church home on January 1, 2019, during "Watch Night Service."

He was preceded in death by four brothers: Willie Frank Williams, Lawrence "Bud" Merritt, Warren James Williams, Sr., Elder Jesse Williams, III, and one sister: Nelerine (Hessie/Sister) Merritt.

Eugene leaves a devoted sister, Gwendolyn Annette Anthony (Rev. James Anthony, Jr.), Douglas, GA, to mourn and cherish his precious memories. He leaves two sons: Richard Eugene Williams, and Jesse James Williams; Three grandchildren: Ciara, Sage, and Xavier; one sister-in-law, Dorothy Williams, Douglas, GA; a very special friend, Mattie M. Zackery, Clinton, MD; (nephews) Warren James Williams, Jr. (Mary) and Henry L. Williams, Douglas, GA; Jerome Johnson, Broxton, GA; Calvin Smith, Douglas, GA, a very special nephew, and personal barber, Emanuel Williams (Sharon), Douglas, GA; Irvin Collins (Miriam), Kaisers Lautern, Germany; Javon Collins (Jodij), Rancho Cucamonga, CA; Mack Anthony (Chanelle), Annapolis, MD; Clyde Anthony (Alma), Atlanta, GA; (nieces) Ora Lee "Pam" Daniels, Dawson, GA; Martha Nell Gifford (Terry), Douglas, GA; Ardemise Williams, Jessica Williams, and Jennifer Williams, Douglas, GA, and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
