

To My Family & Loved Ones

I want to thank God for my time here on earth. I have been released to sleep in peace. To my family and loved ones, don't let yourself cry for me because I am gone on to the other side. I want all to be happy and think of the good times we spent together. I gave my love to all of you. I want yall to know I have enjoyed you love you shown to me. It's traveling time for me, and I must take this journey alone.

All the memories within your hearts, turn them into blessings. I am always close by; just think of me and see me in your memories. You won't be able to see or touch me, but I am still near. My love is all around you all. When you enter this way, remember you must come alone.

I'm in the hands of Jehovah now. Hopefully, I will see all of my loved ones by Jehovah's grace and mercy. I will say welcome home. There are vacant rooms in Glory.

Obituary

Today we pay our respect to Brother Willie Lee Pace. He was born on May 27, 1939, to the late Reverend Shellie and Rosezene Pace. On January 21, 2021, he departed his earthly home at Shady Acres Convalescent Nursing Home in Douglas, Georgia.

Brother Pace served in The United States of America Army. He was united in Holy Wedlock to Annie Ruth Thomas. To this union, four children were born: Joe Pace, Sylvia Pace, Arthur Pace, and Anthony Pace. He was Jehovah's Witness.

He is preceded in death by three brothers and one sister.

He leaves to cherish his memories: four children: Joe Pace, Sylvia Pace, Arthur Pace, and Anthony Pace, all of Tampa, Florida; two sisters: Madglean Pace and Lillian Joyce Pace; three brothers: Melvin Pace, Marvin Pace, and Shelley Pace Jr.; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
