"Blessed is the Woman

Who has a smile in her voice,

A sparkle in her eyes,

A song on her lips:

A spring in her step,

A warmth in her touch,

A depth in her beauty

A purpose for her life,

A joy in her faith,

A hope in her breast

And a love in her heart."

Obituary

Carolyn Davis Jay was born on July 2, 1937, in Atkinson County to the late Matt and Roxy Johnson Davis. She is preceded in death by her siblings: Ludell Davis, Anniebell Moore, Eula Bell Atkinson, Pauline Roberts, Irell Long, Mary Presley, Inez Perkins, Dorthy Williams, Dorkis Davis, Alean Davis, Elsie Davis, Robert Lee Davis and Troy Davis and Sister/Friend Gloria Jean Powell.

She graduated from Carver High School in 1954. After completing High School, she moved to Brunswick, Georgia and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where she pursued a career in Nursing. She worked at Pennsylvania Hospital as a Labor and Delivery Nurse. She was an inspiration and mentor to many nurses who affectionately referred to her as CJ. She retired after 32 years of faithful service.

At an early age, she joined St. Mary Mora Baptist Church. She continued her Christian walk in Philadelphia at Mount Moriah Pentecostal Church, where she served as an Usher, and on the Pastor Aide Committee and sang in the chorus. She was known for her soft-spoken tone and generosity. Later, she returned to South Georgia, rejoined her family church at St. Mary Mora Baptist Church, served faithfully on the Pastor Aid Committee, and sang in the choir until her health failed.

Aunt Jay enjoyed traveling, spending time with her family, friends, and colleagues. She was an excellent cook, and her specialty was potato salad. Aunt Jay studied the bible and shared God's word.

She was a very sharp dresser. Some who knew her would refer to her as the Scarf Lady.

Having no children of her own, she mothered many of her nieces and nephews. She loved the Davis Family and was excited to attend the Davis Family Reunion every year. She was always eager to share stories with others concerning the Davis Family and Reunion Event.

On Tuesday, January 19, 2021, the sweet spirit of the living God came in quietly and peacefully lowered His chariot and took Carolyn to the place He promised He had gone to prepare for her. She leaves to mourn her passing, her nieces and nephews, family and friends.

A Message From Heaven

Perhaps you aren't ready yet to have to say goodbye perhaps you thought of things you wish you said, well so have I. for one thing, I would have told you not to worry about me. I'm with the Lord in heaven now... you knew that's where I'd be. I'm sorry that you're feeling sad, for I'm so happy now... I've asked the Lord to ease your hurt and comfort you somehow. it's hard at the beginning, but I know you will make it through. I hope it helps to know that I'll be waiting here for you.
