101 NICHOLLS CEMETERY RD, NICHOLLS, GA 31554

On Wednesday, January 6, 2021, Samuel Bartholomew "SB" King, Jr. passed away at the age of 78.

SB was born the youngest son of Samuel "Buster" King, Sr. and Nettie Blow King on July 2, 1942 in Nicholls, Georgia. At a young age SB would become a member of St. James A.M.E. Church. He graduated from Carver High School. He was drafted into the United States Army and served from 1964 to 1966. He would serve a tour in Vietnam. Upon returning home from the service SB would work several years at Jeffery Metals in Douglas, he also worked as a truck driver, hauled pulpwood with his older brother HA, and worked as a lineman for Pike Electric. Throughout the years he would also run a nightclub.

SB enjoyed fishing and would go weekly until his health began to fail him. He enjoyed a good game of bid whist. He was an avid sports fan and enjoyed a good Western.

SB was married to Barbara Ann Dunnam for 51 years, she would precede him in death by two days.

SB was preceded in death by his parents: Buster and Nettie King; his wife: Barbara Ann; one sister: Juanita Smith; three brothers: Vernon Woodbury, Herbert "HA" King, and Christopher "Jack" Woodbury.

He leaves to cherish his memory five daughters: Shelia (Ulyssee) Grady-Worthy of Nicholls, GA, Terri (Dave) Boccio of Albany, NY, Wanda Kay Grady of Austell, GA, Debbie Blash & Tonyea Blash of Miami, FL; three sons: Anthony (Cassandra) Dunnam of New Port Richey, FL, Lonnie (Thamara) Holmes of Hampton, GA, and Jefferey (Shelia) Brown of Nicholls, GA; 17 grandchildren; 42 great grandchildren; three great great-grandchildren; brother-in-law: Jerome (Molly) Dunnam of Jacksonville, FL; sister-in-laws: Glenda Dunnam of Pensacola, FL; Brunette Moss King of Fitzgerald, GA; special nephews: Byron and Zavian King; good friends: Otis and Betty Everett; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Our Memories

On Monday, January 4, 2021, Barbara Ann King passed away at the age of 77.

Barbara Ann was born to the late Quitman and Thelma Tomlin Dunnam on January 26, 1943 in Ware County, Georgia. Barbara Ann would grow up in Beach, Georgia with her maternal grandparents Phil and Naomi Tomlin. As the oldest grandchild she spent a lot of time helping "Ma" with the other kids and grandkids. While in Beach the family attended Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. Barbara Ann would attend the Tellmore School until the family moved from Beach to Nicholls. She would then begin attending Carver High in Douglas.

Barbara Ann was employed with Streat's Garment Factory in Nicholls for nearly 25 years earning the position of supervisor during her time there. In her later years she would start her own house cleaning company that she would run until her health would no longer allow.

Barbara enjoyed cooking and baking her famous blueberry cake. She was an avid reader and would lose herself in a book for hours, a passion she would pass on to some of her kids and grandkids. She spent many years as apart of the culinary committee for Popular Springs Baptist Church.

Barbara was married to Samuel King, Jr. on September 6, 1969. They would be married for 51 years.

Barbara Ann was preceded in death by her parents: Quitman and Thelma Dunnam; three brothers: Alphonso Dunnam, Alexander Dunnam, & Rudolph Dunnam.

She leaves to cherish her memory three sons: Anthony (Cassandra) Dunnam of New Port Richey, FL, Lonnie (Thamara) Holmes of Hampton, GA, and Jefferey (Shelia) Brown of Nicholls, GA five daughters: Terri (Dave) Boccio of Albany, NY, Shelia (Ulyssee) Grady-Worthy of Nicholls, GA, Wanda Kay Grady of Austell, GA, Debbie Blash & Tonyea Blash of Miami, FL; 17 grandchildren; 42 great grandchildren; three great great-grandchildren; one brother: Jerome (Molly) Dunnam of Jacksonville, FL; one sister: Glenda Dunnam of Pensacola, FL; one aunt: Mary Tomlin Hornsby of Nicholls, GA; one sister-in-law; Brunette Moss King; special nephews Byron and Zavian King; good friends Otis and Betty Everett; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
