

One At Rest

*Think of me as one at rest, for me you should not weep
I have no pain no troubled thoughts for I am just asleep.*

*The living thinking me that was,
is now forever still
And life goes on without me now, as time forever will.*

*If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away Dwell not long upon it friend
For none of us can stay*

And in my fleeting lifespan, as time went rushing by I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to love, to cry

*Matters it now if time began If time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all,
and now I am at peace.*

Obituary

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.”
(John 14:1)

Henry Lee Williams, the son of the late Warren James Williams, Sr., and the late Gladys “Ophelia” McCray Williams Cruse, was born on November 2, 1952, in Whiteville, Columbus County, North Carolina.

Henry Lee, an attendee of Carver High and Elementary School, Douglas, Georgia, moved with his family to Georgia in 1958 and later moved to Washington, D. C. in 1961. He and his family returned to Douglas, Georgia, in 1962.

Henry Lee was the third child of four siblings, with two preceding him in death: An infant sister, Barbara Williams, and a brother Frederick Alphonso Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one brother: Warren James “Tee” Williams, Jr., (Mary); Sister-in-Law, Eva Williams; two aunts: Gwendolyn Annette Anthony (James); Annie Bell McCray; One nephew, Tjarius Thomas; One niece: Angela Williams, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
