

You never said "I'm leaving",
You never said "Goodbye".
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart I had a place,
That only you can fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
A part of me went with you,
The day God called you home.

“What A Friend We Have In Jesus”

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Blessed Savior, Thou hast promised
Thou wilt all our burdens bear;
May we ever, Lord, be bringing
All to Thee in earnest prayer.
Soon in glory bright, unclouded,
There will be no need for prayer—
Rapture, praise, and endless worship
Will be our sweet portion there.

OBITUARY

Deacon Rex Buchanan was born to the union of the Late Paul and Ophelia Buchanan in Douglas, Georgia on December 26, 1947 in the Upton Community in Coffee County. The eighth oldest of twelve children, Rex was preceded in death by his Siblings: Willard, Etta, Van, Paul Jr, Willie Paul, Naeline and one step-son, Chris Tyson. Rex attended school in Douglas, Georgia. Upon graduation from High School, He attended Savannah State College for a brief time. Rex married the late Annie Mae Clemmons, of Douglas, and reared two daughters. He later married, Bernita Tyson, of Douglas, and helped raise her three sons. Rex was a faithful member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. He was active in many aspects of the church. Rex was an ordained Deacon and served on the finance committee. Rex loved to lead the devotion at church. His favorite hymn was “What a Friend We Have In Jesus”. Deacon Buchanan also sang in the Senior Choir. He loved to sing and was one of the founding members of the Broxton Male Chorus. Deacon Buchanan attended Sunday School and loved to attend the Great Eastern Missionary Baptist Union and Association. Rex also loved playing cards and games, with his nephews, whenever there was a family gathering. Rex was best known for his “joke” telling. He loved to tell a good joke, and he had plenty of them to tell. He will surely missed by his family and many friends.

Deacon Rex Buchanan leaves to cherish his memory: A devoted and loving wife, Bernita Buchanan; Daughters: Pastor Stephanie Buchanan and Minister Toni Buchanan; Daughter-in-law: Candace Tyson; Step-Sons: Timothy and Sedric Tyson; Brothers: Samuel Love, Eddie Buchanan (Georgia) and Don Buchanan (Daisy); Brother-in-laws: Cleveland Tyson (Teresa) and George Williams; Sisters: Pauline Oliver (Amos}, Gwendolyn Reliford (Joe), Linda Arnold (David) and Brenda Brown. Sister-in-laws: Lottie Buchanan, Etwilla Williams and Katie Mizell. One Aunt: Retha Haynes; Fourteen Grand-Children: Kieara, Mikeayla, Nathan, Kaleb, Jasmine, Darius, Rashod, Alena, Kevion, Tyrian, Alexis, Zion, Quay, Quaima and Siryah. Twelve Great-Grand Children and a host of Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
