

The Broken Chain

Again the chain is broken, and the limb has fallen from the tree.

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not there to see.

Why cry for a soul set free. He did not do this out of spite. He knew that I was weak and could no longer fight. Remember the good life I lived while I was strong. My mind is at ease; my soul is at rest. Remembering how I was truly blessed.

*Miss me but let me go. This a journey that we all must take alone. It's all part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home.
Miss me but let me go. There's only one life, and it will soon pass; only what's done for Christ will last.*

We love and will miss you, our brother. You are the other half that makes us whole. You bloomed where you were planted.

Your Siblings, Jimmy, JoAnn, Lisa, and Anita

Precious Memories

Life Reflections

Mr. Willie Floyd, affectionately known as Floyd, was born on November 20, 1949, in Lanier County to the late Vernon Floyd and Asleen Bailey-Floyd. He was the oldest of six siblings. Mr. Floyd attended Atkinson County Public School in Pearson, Georgia. Mr. Floyd graduated from high school in May of 1968. During his youth, he was baptized and joined Mount Olive Baptist Church of Pearson, Georgia.

He was a humble and loyal man. He had a generous and forgiving heart. Mr. Willie had an outgoing spirit and charming smile. He was employed with Douglas Foods of Coffee County. Later in life, he moved to Atlanta, Georgia, where he was employed with Ryder Truck Lines. Shortly after, his father invested in Bickley Pulpwood, where he and his brother worked with their father.

He later met the love of his life, Queen Ester Durham, and was united in Holy Matrimony. He also attended Everett Chapel Church. Like his father, Willie became an entrepreneur and invested in a window-washing business where he washed windows until his health failed.

On March 3, 2021, God sent an angel and summoned Floyd to come home. He is preceded in death by his wife, Queen Ester Durham, his parents, Vernon and Asleen Bailey-Floyd, and one brother, Larry Floyd.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter: Sonja Davis; three sisters: Joann Floyd-Churchill, Lisa Floyd, and Anita Floyd; one brother: Jimmy Floyd; three step-children: Linda (Charles) Bailey, Charlotte (Tony) James, and Kevin Durham; one aunt: Rosa Bailey, one uncle: William Bailey; one devoted friend: George Dennis; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, five step-grandchildren, four step-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.

Lovingly Submitted
