

TO MY BIG BROTHER

You showed me a lot of things,
I learned a lot I didn't know,
But you forgot to teach me one last thing,
How to let you go,
I know you didn't mean to leave me,
Sometimes we have no choice,
I miss being your little brother,
Hearing my name called by your voice,
I wish I got to say "I love you" before you were given to the sky,
If God could grant me one last wish ,
I'd ask to say "Goodbye"
You always meant a lot to me,
I could never love you any less,
I know it's true when they say...
"HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST"

Love, Your Brother

OBITUARY

Christopher Donell Stevens was born on March 4, 1985, to Jeanette Holmes and the late Joe Nathan Stevens in Alma, Georgia. He attended Bacon County High School. Donell was the type of person that you could spend one minute with and end up laughing.

In his spare time, he loved to cook and eat. While he was cooking, his number one rule was, "Don't get in my way!" (especially while he was on the grill.) One of his most favorite sayings was, "The truth hurts, people don't like to hear it, but it's the truth," and he lived by that.

Although Mr. Donell dealt with his illness for over a decade, he made sure his family was well taken care of. Donell took pride in making sure his wife and son were happy, fed, and loved. He always made sure he took time out of his day to check on his only sibling Theo and their mom. He was the definition of, "I am my brother's keeper."

Donell leaves to cherish his precious memories: a loving wife: Edythe Veronica Stevens; his son: Christopher Deshawn Stevens, his brother: Timothy Holmes (Tanya), his mother: Jeanette Holmes, his grandmother Eloise Brinson (the late Amos Brinson), and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, in-laws, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
