

So many things of you I will miss Your gentle hug and tender kiss. I still can feel your warm embrace And picture your loving face.

A mother's tasks are never done. And Heaven must have needed one. For angles came and took your hand And led her to God's promised land.

You are surely kept quite busy there While laughing and talking to Dad and Shonda.

Although there's sadness, this I know You are waiting there for me. Your face a glow I close my eyes and I can see Your arms still open wide for me.

> We love you, Alanna & Kendra

 Hcknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless. -The Family

Life Reflections

A Time to be Born: Minister Christine Colson was born in Coffee County, Georgia, on August 15, 1957, to her parents.

A Time to Transition: Minister Christine Colson has fought the good fight, ran the race, and won the battle on May 27, 2021, at Coffee Regional Medical Center God knelt down and whispered, "Come Home" my child, no more pain, no more sickness. Obediently, she surrendered her soul; she's no longer dreaming the dream; she now lives the dream with her Heavenly Father.

A Time to Love: She was joined in Holy Matrimony to Elder Herman G. Colson. To this union, three beautiful daughters were born.

A Time to Learn: She was educated in the Coffee County School System.

A Time of Faith: Minister Christine Colson accepted Christ at an early age. She was first lady and devoted minister under her husband Elder Herman Colson at Evergreen Union Holiness Church in Pearson, Georgia. She later served under the leadership of Elder Cory Holland at Evergreen Union Holiness Church.

A Time of Sorrow: She was preceded in death by her mother: Peggy Glover; her husband: Elder Herman G. Colson; and one daughter: Lashana Colson.

A Time to Rejoice: She leaves to cherish her memories: two loving daughters: Alanna Colson and Kendra (Coty) Lundy; six grandchildren: Zion, Tauzianna, Natavia, Azuri, Ahn'dree, and Alaysia; one godson: Keyshawn (Brianna) Bailey; father: Marildon (Julia) Glover; eight siblings: Lucille Reed, Linda Burch, Jurell Glover, Mario (Sharon) Glover, Edward (Lavern) Glover, Derrick (Emma) Glover, Jonathan (Sharon) Glover, and Jimmy Dale Glover; also a host of aunts, uncles, in laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
