Obituary

Mr. Kadorius Brandon Johnson was born March 28, 1993 in Statesboro, Georgia to Tonya A. Grady Johnson and Corey S. Johnson. Kadorius was the oldest of two children.

Kadorius has been under the spiritual leadership of Reverend Tommy Jordan at the Saint James Missionary Baptist Church where he has served as an usher, keyboard player, and youth president. He also served as the Ambrose District Union Youth President for many years. Kadorius was a faithful musician of the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church of Alapaha, Georgia and Allen Chapel AME (Sandy Bottom) of Pearson, GA. He was a member of the Queenell Youth Chapter #145 of Douglas, Georgia. He enjoyed gaming, streaming, his carnivorous plants, and succulent plants.

Kadorius was a member of the Coffee High School Band and received the Director's Award during his senior year. He graduated from Coffee High School as an Honor Graduate in 2011. Kadorius is also a 2017 graduate of Armstrong State University of Savannah, Georgia where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Rehabilitation Sciences.

Kadorius previously worked at K-Mart, Department of Family and Children Services and most recently has been employed with Behavioral Health Link Mobile Crisis Services.
