

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane.
I would walk right up to Heaven
and bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.

My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you -
No one can ever know.

But now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.

Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today~
A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The family of the late LaFall Haugebrook wishes to express our gratitude and thanks for all the many kind deeds, comforting messages, flowers, prayers, and all other acts and expressions of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement.

Obituary

LaFall Haugebrook was born on January 7, 1977 to Willie and Elouise Haugebrook. She attended Satilla Elementary School and Coffee Middle School. She graduated from Coffee High School.

LaFall has fought the good fight, ran the race, and won the battle on August 21, 2021, at Coffee Regional Medical Center God knelt down and whispered, "Come Home" my child, no more pain, no more sickness. Obediently, she surrendered her soul; she's no longer dreaming the dream; she now lives the dream with her Heavenly Father.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving and devoted parents: Willie C. and Elouise Haugebrook of Douglas, Georgia; two sisters: Willene (Stephen) Haugebrook-Clowers, and Edwina (Tommy) Haugebrook-Gray both of Douglas, Georgia; three nieces: Yasmeen (Jason) Taylor, Princess Haugebrook, and Kristin Parker all of Douglas, Georgia; one nephew: Jeffrey Moffett of Douglas, Georgia; two great nieces: Khy'India Moffett, and Kimberly Lester both of Douglas, Georgia; two great-nephews: King Taylor and Kash Taylor both of Douglas, Georgia; two special cousins: Sonya Fillmore and Debra Wallace both of Douglas, Georgia; and a host of cousins and friends.
