

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Mark 11: 22-24

22 "Have faith in God," Jesus answered.
 23 Truly tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and does not doubt in their heart but believes that what they say will happen, it will be done for them.
 24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Missionary Cora Core was born November 19, 1948, to the late William and Jimmie Lee Core. She served as pastor for 35 years. Missionary Core dedicated her life to serving God and loved preaching the word. Her faith was strong, and she lived by it. She was dedicated to her church and her members. Missionary Cora Core mastered a powerful voice in the pulpit that demanded your attention.

Missionary Core loved singing gospel songs. Her favorite song to sing was "Seal It Up"; to hear her sing it would leave you wanting more. She would help anybody in any way she could. Many people came to her for help or advice. She helped raise many children in the community.

She left her earthly home to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 15, 2021.

She leaves to cherish her memories: three loving children: Dondre (Tonya) Wilson, Oscar Tony Core, and Sonya Wilson; two brothers: William (Katie) Core and Charles (Shirley) Core; seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild; ex-husband: Oscar Wilson; two god-children she helped raised: Nicosia Johnson and Jarroid Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
