

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He makes me to lie down in green pastures;

He leads me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul;

He leads me in the paths of righteousness

For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil;

For You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil;

My cup runs over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

All the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD

Forever.

Acknowledgements

Words cannot adequately express our gratitude and appreciation for your many acts of kindness and demonstration of love. We felt your prayers, we saw your concern and we were comforted by your care. Also, we express many thanks to the officiating minister, pallbearers, flower attendants, ushers and other volunteers for your loyal services. From the depths of our hearts, we thank God for you and the sacrifice you made to love us through this difficult time. May God's hand be upon you and may He richly bless you for all you have done for us. To God we give the glory.

A Message to My Aunt

My mind knows you are in a better place,
Where there is no more pain.
You are at peace.
I understand that, I just wish I could
Explain that to my heart.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-14

Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.
