Obituary

Deacon James Clinton Brinson was born on April 8, 1937 to the late Bertha Lee and Willie Lee Brinson in Coffee County, Georgia. He attended Oak Grove school. Deacon Brinson joined Shady Acres Baptist Church, where he was a faithful and devoted member until his health failed him. Many people in the community call him Ball, Brent, or Sticky.

He was blessed with many different skills, which was shown through the different types of jobs he had. Deacon James was a hard worker. He enjoyed gardening, fixing vehicles, construction, and electrician work in his free time.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bertha Lee and Willie Lee Brinson; five siblings: Albertha Williams, Curtis Lee Brinson, Willie Joe Brinson, Willie Frances Barefield, and Margie Nell Smith; two stepchildren: Eddie James Bennett and Mathew Rolax.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Elizabeth Brinson; one son: Keith (Whitley) Brinson; five stepchildren: Patricia Bennett, Robert Lee Rolax, Clyde Shelley Rolax, Kertina Willie Biggins, and Michelle Williams; one sister: Shirley Anne (Robert) Thornton; two sisters-in-law: Mary Ann Douglas and Leola Brinson; two aunts: Hilda Gifford, and Sally Gifford; and host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
