

I Miss You Sis

I thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories,
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake,
with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
I have you in my heart.

Life Reflections

Jakayla Cassandra Mathews was born on December 16, 1996, to Cassandra Brockington and Wendell Brockington Jr. in Douglas, Georgia. Jakayla was a graduate of Coffee High, class of 2015.

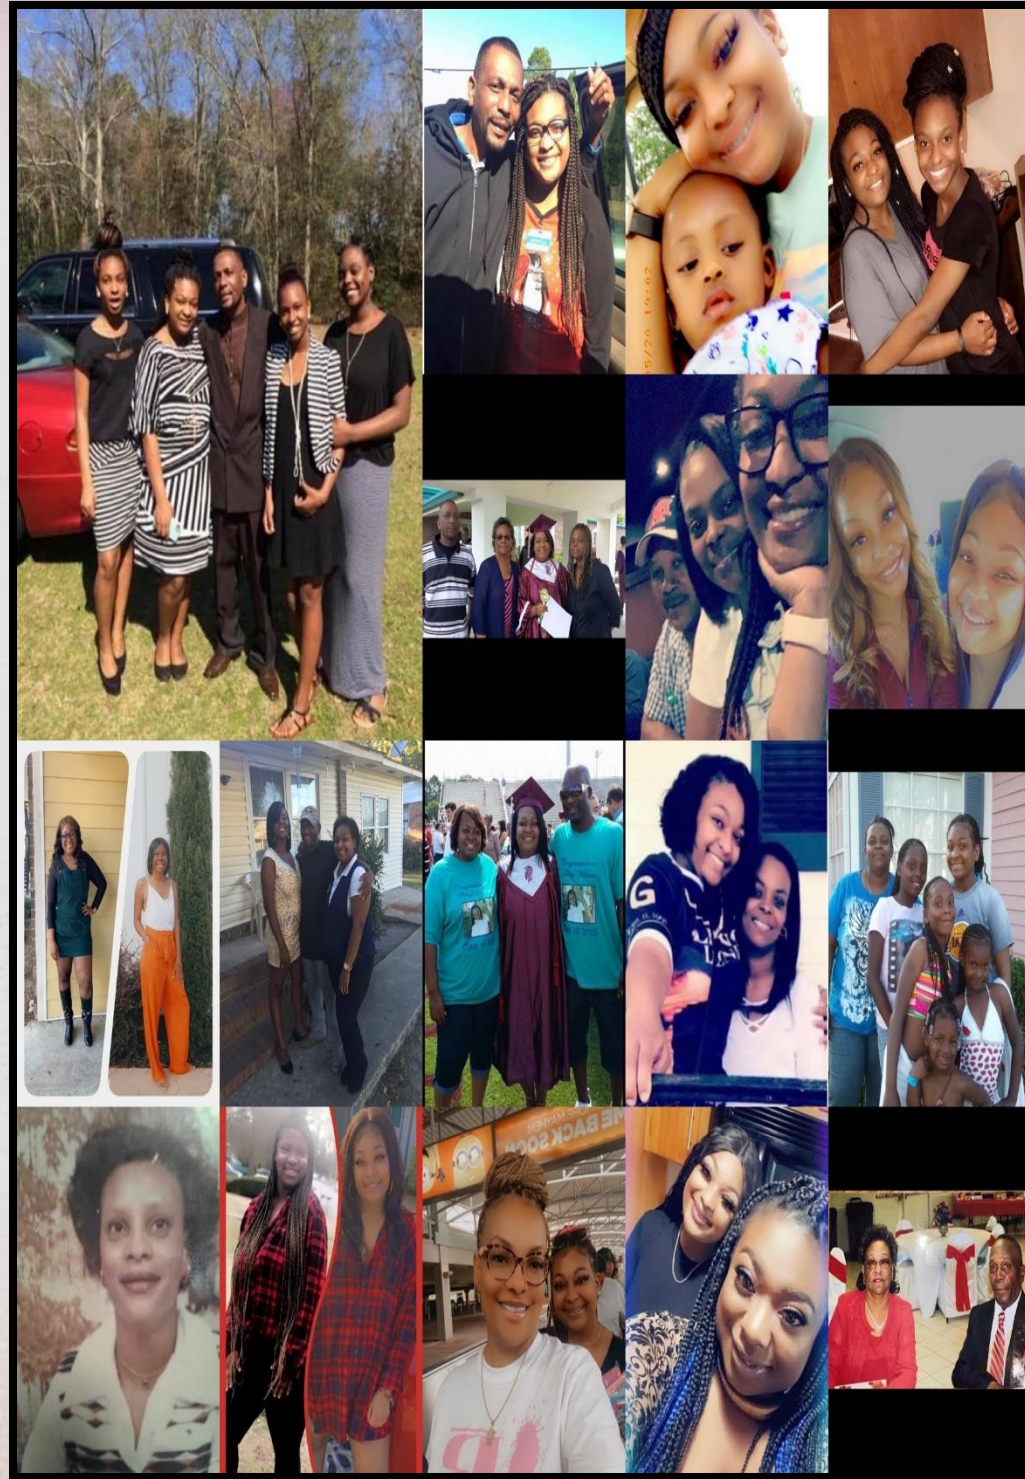

She continued her education at South Georgia State College. She was currently employed at Lowes in Douglas, Ga., upon her death. Jakayla was a beautiful person with a beautiful soul.

Jakayla has fought the good fight, ran the race, and won the battle. On March 22, 2022, at Augusta University Medical Center, God knelt down and whispered, "Come Home," my child, no more pain, no more sickness. Obediently, she surrendered her soul; she's no longer dreaming the dream; she now lives the dream with her Heavenly Father.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother Ida Ruth Mathews and her sister Angel Coates.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her parents: Cassandra Brockington and Wendell Brockington Jr.; six sisters: Audrey Mathews, Shakijah Mathews, Adrienne Brockington, Destiny Coates, Whitney Staggers, and Raven (Stephen) Eady; two nieces: Nevaeh Eady and Jordyn Staggers; three nephews: Kason Smith, Josiah and Jonas Staggers; Her grandparents: Wendell Sr. and Jurell Brockington; a special aunt: Crystal (Lindsey) Johnson; her godparents: Cathy and George Clemmons; step-father: Allen Lott and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
